This action is responsive to the communication filed December 12, 2003.

Claims 1-6 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 C.F.R. § 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Species. Election of Species L, Figure 6, was made without traverse in Paper No. 5.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 9-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no written disclosure of the combinations of claim 7 with any of claims 9-13, nor written disclosure of means for maintaining said roller at different positions of the channel as in claims 14-15. Original claim 6, depending from claim 2, corresponds to claim 8, although the elements are recited in reverse order.

Claims 14-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. There is no enabling disclosure of means for maintaining said roller at different positions of the channel as in claims 14-15, especially of how the narrowing walls of Figure 6 accomplish such a function.

Claims 7-8 are allowed.
